WEEKDAY BIBLE
NEW TIME and NEW STUDY
Begins January 23, 2006

Adults will want to checkout these Weekday Bible Study opportunities.

The Ever-Loving Truth is a seven-week study. This study group will meet Monday nights at 7:00 p.m. in the Activity Building. Richard Josefy will be the leader for this learning activity. Through this inductive Bible Study participants will discover God's answers to questions like these:

- Does truth exist? If so, how can we know it?
- We have our faith, and other people have theirs; should we try to convince people that ours is right?
- While we believe the Bible, other people believe their holy book. Who can say that ours is correct?
- Who is Jesus? What are the implications for our beliefs about Him?

Textbooks can be purchased in the church office at a cost of $13.00.

THESE ARE PRIME TIME DAYS

The days and weeks reaching to Easter and the end of May provide great opportunities to reach visitors for Bible Study and Church membership. Sunday School departments and classes will want to take some time and consider: Bible Study, Outreach, Ministry and Fellowship. Every teacher will want to mark this down, these are the things we want to accomplish between now, Easter and the end of May. Plan some time with your current leadership to make plans for Bible Study, Ministry, Outreach, Fellowship. Two tools will be available this Sunday in the Sunday School records box to assist the Sunday School leadership team in the plans they make.

1. Attendance Marking Sheet. Department and class secretaries work with Attendance Marking Sheet every week. The far right column will give the last date attended. Under the attendance marking box on the left column attendance information for the last five weeks is provided. Those responsible for making contacts with those enrolled will want to pay close attention to this information.

2. Recent Visitors, Possible New Members. This list is provided to help the leadership team remember who those recent visitors are. These recent visitors are our possible new members.
